Internal Quality Assurance Cell

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council advocates the establishment of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) by all the institutions imparting higher education as a post accreditation initiative.

📌 Objective

The primary aim of the IQAC is to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic action to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution, besides implementation of good practices in quality assurance to develop a quality culture and academic ambience.

📌 Strategies

- Ensuring timely, efficient and progressive performance of academic, administrative and financial tasks.
- Optimization and integration of modern methods of teaching, learning and evaluation.
- Ensuring the adequacy, maintenance and functioning of the support structure.

📌 Functions

- Development and application of quality benchmark/parameters for the various academic and administrative activities of the institution.
- Dissemination of information on the various quality parameters of higher education.
- To motivate for organization of Conferences, Workshops, Seminars of quality related themes and promotion of quality circles.
- Documentation of the various programmes/activities leading to quality improvement.
- Preparation of the Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) for onward submission to NAAC based on the quality parameters.

📌 Benefits

IQAC facilitates/contributes

- To a heightened level of clarity and focus in overall functioning of the institution towards quality enhancement and internalization of the quality culture.
- To the enhancement and integration among the various activities of the institution and institutionalize many good practices.
- To provide a sound basis for decision making to improve institutional functioning
- To act as a change agent in the institution
- To better internal communication.

All members of the institution assure adherence and commitment to the above objectives and functions of the IQAC and contribute to the all-round development of the staff and students in general and institute as a whole.
